ORDER OF COURT

Entered: July 6, 2026

In each of the above-captioned appeals, plaintiff-appellant has filed a motion to consolidate and a motion to expedite. The court has received responses and replies and has considered carefully the arguments set out in each relevant filing. The requests to consolidate and to expedite are resolved as follows.

Regarding the request to consolidate, the appeals will be briefed separately, but the court will coordinate resolution of the appeals to the extent practicable and appropriate.

Regarding the request to expedite, a standard briefing schedule immediately will be entered in each appeal. Plaintiff-appellant is free to file its opening brief in each case before the deadline set out in the operative schedule and is free to file any reply brief immediately upon service of the relevant response brief. See generally Fed. R. App. P. 31(a) ("The appellee must serve and file a brief within 30 days after the appellant's brief is served. The appellant may serve and file a reply brief within 21 days after service of the appellee's brief . . .").

Oral argument, to the extent ultimately deemed necessary, will be scheduled as soon as practicable.
